10. NOMINATION OF BENEFICIARIES

Your death benefit may only be paid to one or more of your dependant/s or to your estate. If the Trustee is unable to find a dependant or a legal personal representative (e.g. the executor of your estate) your death benefit may be paid to any other person that the Trustee determines appropriate subject to government legislation.

A 'dependant' includes your spouse (legal and de facto), your children, a person in an interdependency relationship with you and a person who is financially dependent on you.

You may nominate one or more of your dependants or your legal personal representative as your preferred death benefit beneficiaries.

Mason Stevens Super offers members the ability to make a binding death benefit nomination in order to provide greater certainty about who receives a member's benefit.

Type of nomination (Please choose only ONE type of nomination)

Reversionary* (Account Based pensions only)

* Note – You can nominate your spouse including a de facto or same sex partner, or your child as a reversionary beneficiary. You can elect to add, change or remove your reversionary nomination at any time. If you have a reversionary nomination in place for your pension account and subsequently make a binding nomination it will replace the existing reversionary nomination.

If your reversionary nomination cannot be implemented (for whatever reason), the Trustee will pay your benefit as a lump sum taking into account your binding or non-binding nomination (if any).

Binding Lapsing (2 witnesses required)

Binding Non-Lapsing (2 witnesses required)

Non-Binding (no witness required)
